

SIGHTINGS

1. January 1973. A truck driver hits a 7 foot Bigfoot on US101. The front of the logging truck is badly damaged.
2. August, 1958. Road builders Ray Wallace and Jerry Crew find 17 inch Bigfoot tracks all around a parked tractor 20 miles north of Weitchpec. The tracks reappear a month later and plaster casts are made. Weekly, thereafter, Jerry sees Bigfoot tracks going from northwest to southeast on the same logging road. Ray Wallace finds human-like droppings the size of those a 1200 pound horse would make. Wilbur Wallace, Ray's brother, finds a full 55 gallon oil drum carried to the edge of the road and thrown down the hill. He also finds a 29 foot length of 18 inch culvert carried some distance away, and a 700 pound tire and wheel for a "carry all", which has been rolled for 1/ mile and hurled into a ravine.
3. Fall, 1958, Editor Andrew Genzoli and the senior staff photographer of the Times-Standard newspaper see Bigfoot tracks and feces of monumental proportions like those of a "2 ton bear with chronic constipation".
4. 1958 Lawrence Omeg sees a Bigfoot outside his shack after work on a logging job.
5. September, 1958. Bigfoot tracks are seen 4 different times on Bluff Creek Road.
6. October 1, 1958. Jerry Crew finds ¼ mile of Bigfoot tracks on Bluff Creek Road and makes casts.
7. October 12, 1958. Ray Kerr and Leslie Brezeale see a Bigfoot cross a 20 foot road in 2 strides and find tracks several miles south of where they are usually seen on Bluff Creek Road. Hired by Ray Wallace to track Bigfoot, they redouble their hunting effort, but their dogs disappear a few days later and are never seen again.
8. 1959. A husband and wife flying a private plane over Bluff Creek see and follow Bigfoot tracks until they pass over the Bigfoot making them.
10. October 23, 1958 Bigfoot tracks are seen on Bluff Creek Road.
11. October 28, 1958. Two miles of Bigfoot tracks are seen on Bluff Creek Road

12. October 30, 1958. Bigfoot tracks are seen going down a side hill from Bluff Creek Road.
13. November 2, 1958. Bob Titmus and Ed Patrick find Bigfoot tracks on the Bluff Creek sandbar.
14. December 18, 1958. Betty Allen finds 6 miles of Bigfoot tracks on Bluff Creek Road.
15. August 16, 1959 Bob Titmus finds 300 yard of Bigfoot tracks along Bluff Creek sandbar.
16. August 30, 1959. Bob Titmus finds a fresh stretch of Bigfoot tracks along Bluff Creek sandbar.
17. November 1, 1959. Bob Titmus finds more tracks at Bluff Creek sandbar.
18. November 2, 1959. Betty Allen finds Bigfoot tracks coming down a canyon and along Bluff Cree Road.
19. January 30, 1960. Betty Allen finds Bigfoot tracks around a shovel loader on Humboldt Fir logging road a Bluff Creek.
20. 1969 Peter Byrne, Brian Matthes, and Steve Matthes find tracks along Bluff Creek.
21. June 19, 1960 Dr. Charles Johnson and his family find Bigfoot tracks on both sides of the Klamath River ½ mile west of Bluff Creek.
22. August 19, 1962. Skip Clark finds and casts Bigfoot tracks on Bluff Creek Road and in creek bottom.
23. September 26, 1962. Bob Titmus finds miles of Bigfoot tracks on Bluff Creek Road and in the creek bottom.
24. June 13, 1963. Bigfoot tracks 16 inches long are found crossing Notice Creek near Bluff Creek only 100 feet away from where 3 men were sleeping in a car.

25. June 2, 1963. Skip Clark finds and casts a 15 inch Bigfoot track on Bluff Creek sandbar.
26. 1963. Thomas Sourwine says a 300 pound boulder was used to repeatedly hit road building equipment near Bluff Creek
27. June 30, 1963. Bigfoot tracks 10 inches and 15 inches long are found and cast in the bluff Creek area.
28. 1963. Graves follows Bigfoot tracks for 5 miles from Laird Meadow to Bluff Creek road and Notice Creek. Sticks 1 1/4 inches thick are broken in the tracks.
29. 1963. Dave Blake finds Bigfoot tracks where a barrel of diesel fuel was throw off the road.
30. 1963. Bigfoot tracks 15 inches long are found at Bluff Creek logging operation, with boxes of spikes thrown around and sticks of dynamite bitten into.
31. August 3, 1963. A man and his boy see a Bigfoot leap over a 5 foot fence and run into the woods near Hoopa.
- August 1963. Bigfoot tracks are found on Bluff Creek Road at Notice Creek Bridge.
32. October, 1963. Al Hodgson finds a set of Bigfoot tracks a few hundred yards above the Notice Creek Bridge at Bluff Creek sandbar. (The sandbar was washed away in the 1964 flood.)
33. Summer, 1964. Dave Blake often finds Bigfoot tracks at Laird Meadow at the Blake and Tregoning Logging operation west of Bluff Creek. A culvert 4 feet in diameter and 20 feet long is thrown into the canyon and 450 pound barrels of diesel fuel are moved around.
34. August 21, 1964/ Roger Patterson finds and casts 17 inch tracks with a 52 inch stride on Laird Meadow Road.
35. September, 1964. Samuel Brewer Jr. finds and casts 15 1/2 inch Bigfoot tracks with a 47 inch stride along Bluff Creek.

36. Fall, 1964. Dave Blake sees Bigfoot tracks around his logging equipment every morning for a week. A trailer load of 18 inch culverts is overturned while men are working nearby.

37. 1965. Jay Roland finds Bigfoot tracks along Bluff Creek.

38. July, 1965. Steve Sanders and 2 others sleeping in a tent awake to see a large finger or stick opening their tent flap. Their yells scare it off. Investigating the next day, they find Bigfoot tracks 17 inches long and 7 inches wide around their tent at Blue Lake near Bluff Creek.

39. 1966. Richard Sides sees a Bigfoot squatting at Bluff Creek Drinking water with cupped hands.

40. Fall 1966. Jay Roland sees Bigfoot tracks on a road a Scorpion Creek in the Bluff Creek area.

41. August, 1967. Several Bigfoot tracks are found and cast by a road crew on Onion Mountain, west of Bluff Creek. The tracks measure 13 and 15 inches long.

42. August, 1967. Bud Ryerson sees hundreds of 13 and 15 inch Bigfoot tracks on a road he is building on Blue Mountain, west of Bluff Creek. Tractor parts are scattered all over the area.

43. October, 20, 1967. Bob Gimlin and Roger Patterson see and film motion pictures of a female Bigfoot just above Notice Creek between Onion Mountain, Bee Mountain, and Fish Creek Butte. Her tracks measure 14 ½ inches long.

44. October 25, 1967. Dan Mullens finds Bigfoot tacks and an unopened case of oil cans crushed on Notice Creek.

45. January, 1968. Mrs. Bud Ryerson and several others see Bigfoot tracks on Martin's Ferry Hill near Weitchpec.

46. June, 1968. Steve Martin and Bruce Cornwall find Bigfoot tracks between Bluff Creek and Fish Lake.

47. December, 1968. S.C. Buttram finds Bigfoot tracks heading north from the dump about 4 miles north of Orleans.

48. December, 2, 1968. Bigfoot tracks 16 inches long are found for 3 miles on Bluff Creek Road going from the East Fork to Notice Creek.

49. January, 1969. Pat Graves sees Bigfoot tracks from a plane between Blue Creek Divide and Nikowitz Road.

50. Late May, 1969. Dr. Bernard Northrup and a party of San Francisco Theological Seminary students find over 1000 16 inch Bigfoot tracks in the Bluff Creek area. They also find loose bark stripped from the trees near the tracks.

51. August 1969. The owner of the Bluff Creek Resort finds 16 inch Bigfoot tracks in the sand bar at the mouth of Bluff Creek.

52. Mike Burke, Buck Ferguson and Bill Mueller find Bigfoot tracks with a 5 foot stride beyond Twin Lakes turnoff at Camp Creek near Orleans.

53. 1960-1963 Benjamin Wilder sees a Bigfoot at night east of Orleans

54. March 1960. Ivan Marx finds Bigfoot tracks near the lookout on Offield Mountain

55. 1952 A man sees a Bigfoot on a dirt road north of Orleans that comes out at the mouth of Bear Creek and goes through Bear Valley. After driving on, he later stops and gets out of the car. The Bigfoot comes toward him menacingly, then turns and stalks down the road, and then suddenly charges back to attack the car as the man drives away. The Bigfoot holds onto the car for 200 yards before letting go.

1956. Mrs. J. Pomray sees Bigfoot run across Interstate 5 just north of Mt. Shasta.

56. 1886 One of the earliest recorded references to a man-animal in Crescent City, California. John Dover sees a Bigfoot creature between Happy Camp and the Marble Mountains.

57. June 9, 1980 David Wilhelm and Ben Larson see a 12 foot Bigfoot in Scotts Valley. The following day they find tracks.

58. Mid-1960. Henry Dierkoph and 2 others see several sets of Bigfoot tracks near Yreka

59. June 1969. Bob Hardesty and Dick Carroll find Bigfoot tracks along the Klamath River in Siskiyou County.
60. 1956. Nrs H, Oinrat sees a Bigfoot run across interstate 5 just north of Mt. Shasta.
61. 1963. a man falls off a bluff near Mt. Shasta while deer hunting and is badly hurt. A 9 foot Bigfoot carries him 2 or 3 miles to safety.
62. July 1973. A naturalist watches an 8 foot Bigfoot for 45 minutes in the Castle Craig Mountains.
63. August 10. 1962. Joseph Wattenbarger sees a Bigfoot in the lave beds 30 miles east of McCloud.
64. August 7, 1960. Bob Titmus finds 2 sets of Bigfoot tracks walking along a rood 9 miles south of Weitchpec.
65. August 3, 1963. A man and his boy see a Bigfoot leap over a 5 foot fence and run into the woods near Hoopa.
66. 1958 A woman and her daughter see a large and small Bigfoot on a hillside above the Hoopa Valley.
67. August 14, 1960 Bob Titmus sees the same 2 sets of Bigfoot tracks he saw the week before on Mill Creek Ridge Road, 8 miles southeast of Hoopa
68. 1967. Russell Summerville sees a 9-foot Bigfoot walk 50 feet along Highway 299 one half mile west of Willow Creek and then go into the woods.
69. July 11. 1968. A Bigfoot walks past a family camping by the Trinity River near Salyer.
70. While sleeping in his van at Gray's Falls Campground, Mike Gordon wakes up at about midnight because a Bigfoot is kicking his tires and rocking his van. Mike sees the Bigfoot's hairy chest, chin and hand through the windows. The 8 foot Bigfoot continues to harass the van for 2 hours, until Mike blows the horn.
71. 1934. Dave Zebo follows a set of Bigfoot tracks up Weaver Bally Mountain.

72. 1936. Dave Zebo sees Bigfoot tracks on Mt. Bally heading over the mountain.

73. 1966. Larry Browning sees a Bigfoot near his campsite north of Weaverville in the Trinity Alps.

74. April 6, 1968. Larry Browning sees a Bigfoot wading the South Fork of the Salmon River. The next day, a female Bigfoot follows him for a half hour on a hike, and then charges him.

75. April 8, 1968. At the same campground Mike Melton sees a Bigfoot leaning over the river to get a drink of water.

76. April 3, 1966. Nick Campbell sees a Bigfoot searching through the trash cans at a campsite north of Weaverville in the Trinity Alps. The next day, he sees the Bigfoot again 3 miles west of camp, and spends a half hour playing hide and seeks with it. Several other campers see the same Bigfoot. It raids the trash can two more nights and is seen one more time.

77. July 1969. Don Ballard and a companion riding horseback see a Bigfoot in the Trinity Alps near Trinity Center.

78. 1958. While driving on Highway 299 east of Weaverville, 2 doctors see a Bigfoot cross the highway at night.

79. October 8, 1972. Randy Norton and Steve Bilespeie see a Bigfoot cross Clear Creek at the Placer Street Bridge near Redding.

80. January 1971. Bigfoot tracks 18 inches long and 7 inches wide are found in the yard of a home on Fenders Ferry Road, Round Mountain.

81. 1947. Mr. and Mrs. Russ Tribble see two Bigfoot creatures south of Fall River Mills and also find their tracks.

82. April, 1963. Bob Titmus finds and casts 3 sets of tracks near Hyampom.

83. May, 1963. Sylvester McCoy finds Bigfoot tracks near Hyampom.

84. April, 1970. Buzz McLaughlin sees a 9 foot Bigfoot at Manzanita Ranch School, Hyampom.

85. Fall, 1963, man sees Bigfoot tracks heading south in the Hyampom area.
86. July 4, 1969. Eldon Brackett sees a 7 ½ foot Bigfoot with 16 ½ inch tracks and a 4 foot stride north of Wildwood.
87. January, 1966. Bob Kelly and Archie Bradshaw see a Bigfoot peering into their cabin window. Bob fires his shotgun at the Bigfoot and thinks he hits it. They find 18 inch tracks in the snow leading into Hayfork Creek from Wildwood.
88. June, 1969. Gen Foster and several others see a 6 foot Bigfoot fighting with dogs at the Wildwood Inn.
89. Winter, 1966. After a 2 day absence from their house 2 miles west of Platina, Mr. and Mrs. Hampton find their door broken off at the hinges. They find 18 inch Bigfoot tracks in the snow.
90. May 14, 1970. Archie Buckley and several others see 16 inch Bigfoot tracks with a 4 ½ foot stride in Basin Gulch Campground, southeast of Wildwood.
91. June 17, 1970. Archie Buckley sees a 7 foot Bigfoot with 15 inch tracks at Stuart Gap, south of Wildwood.
92. August, 1964. A man finds 12 inch and 14 inch Bigfoot tracks high up the north side of Low Gap in the north Yolla Bolla near Saddle Camp. The tracks are in 3 different places several miles apart.
93. July 14, 1969. George Haas and John Dana find ¼ mile of Bigfoot tracks on a trail at West Low Gap in the north Yolla Bolla near Saddle Camp. The tracks are in 3 different places several miles apart.
94. 1961. Bob Titmus sees tracks of several different Bigfoot northeast of Covelo.
95. 1962. Bob Titmus sees tracks of several different Bigfoot in the Covelo area.
96. June, 1962. Robert Hatfield gets up to investigate barking dogs at his house in Fort Bragg and sees the head and shoulders of a Bigfoot above a 6 foot fence. He returns to the house to tell Bud Jensen, but when they return, it is gone. Bud goes back for his gun while Robert rounds the corner of the porch and walks right into the Bigfoot. He is knocked to the ground and scrambles to the house on all fours.

Bud sees the middle of the Bigfoot goes by the window and tries to close the door, but the Bigfoot holds it open. Shotgun in hand, Bud says "Let it in and I'll get it," but the Bigfoot lets go of the door and walks away. A muddy handprint on the door is 11 ½ inches long, although the fingers are quite stubby.

97. Summer 1969. Ken Coon finds and photographs Bigfoot tracks near Oroville.

98. July 1969. Homer Stickley sees a Bigfoot in his yard in rural Oroville.

August, 1969. The owner of the Bigfoot Resort finds 16 inch Bigfoot tracks in the sandbar at the mouth of Bull Creek in the Bluff Creek area.

99. July 17, 1969. Charles and Kevin Jackson see an 8 foot female Bigfoot by an outhouse while burning rabbit entrails in their backyard on Cherokee Road a few miles south of Oroville.

100. Summer 1969. A man sees a Bigfoot run across the Feather River Highway near Oroville.

101. September 3, 1975. Mark Karr drives his car into a tree to avoid hitting a 7 foot Bigfoot near Oroville.

102. October 31, 1969. Wes Strang sees a Bigfoot outside his home near Oroville.

103. January 1970. Ken Coon finds Bigfoot tracks 15 inches long and 9 inches wide near Oroville.

104. April 16, 1970. Homer Stickley finds 11 inch Bigfoot tracks near Oroville.

105. October 1969. Charles Mauldin sees a Bigfoot running on an abandoned road above the Middle Fork of the Feather River.

106. Fall 1969. Ron Sanders sees 2 Bigfeet turning over rocks in French Creek across the reservoir from Oroville and eating something.

107. April 16, 1969. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Behme sees a Bigfoot limp across the road between Paradise and Stirling City.

108. July 1969. A teenage boy and 2 girls see a Bigfoot crouched in the middle of the road while driving home from a movie in Twain.

109. July 1969. Lester Orlinger swerves to miss a Bigfoot in the middle of the road near Twain while coming from Quincy.

110. March 23, 1976. Police patrolman Dan Murphy and Ed Johnson see a large upright Bigfoot climb an 8 foot wall in Mill Valley. The next day they find a freshly killed deer on the spot.

111. February 28, 1963. Lennart Strand and Alden Hoover see a 10 foot Bigfoot from a plane near Sonora, between Confidence and Cherokee Valley Road. They take color photographs, but the pictures turn out blurry.

112. March 1963. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell see a Bigfoot while hiking on their honeymoon at the Jack and Jill Ski Lodge in Strawberry. The owners of the lodge had seen a Bigfoot previously.

April, 1963. Bob Titmus finds and casts 3 sets of tracks near Hyampom.

113. December 1963. The Deputy Sheriff from Pinecrest sees hundreds of 15 inch Bigfoot tracks with a 5 foot stride in an alpine meadow 2 miles northwest of Pinecrest and the same distance from Strawberry.

114. January 6, 1968. Robert James Jr. and Larry Larwick buzz within 50 feet of a 12 foot Bigfoot with 20 inch tracks in their plane north of Yosemite Park. They take pictures of the Bigfoot.

115. July 30, 1979. Bill Iffiger sees an 8 foot Bigfoot dash across US 395 near Bridgeport.

116. Htk 15, 1970. A Deputy Sheriff sees 18 inch Bigfoot tracks at 8500 foot elevation near a lake 8 miles north of Mammoth.

117. September 1, 1971. A Sheriff's Lieutenant sees an 8 foot Bigfoot southeast of Mammoth on a road at 10,000 feet.

July 1973. A naturalist watches an 8 foot Bigfoot for 45 minutes in the Castle Crags Mountains.

1973. Tracks are found on a logging road in Peaceful Valley between Laytonville and Fort Bragg.

1984 South of Mendocino in the Pygmy Forrest screams and calls are heard by campers.

1985. Brian Lee McKinnon sees a Bigfoot running across a field near Berry Summit on Highway 299.

1987, October Brian Lee McKinnon was camping on the Trinity River bar between Hoopa and Weitchpec. At about midnight he was awakened. From his tent he saw a leg and foot. He felt a big hand grab his left shoulder. When he screamed it was scared away. Next morning he saw a 15 inch foot print in the sand.

1986 Dennis Hawkins saw many 16 and 17 inch foot prints in the Los Padres National Forrest near Devil's Pothole. They led to a sheltered nest.

September 1992. Two boys, 8 and 12 years old, first smell then sees a Bigfoot in Klamath.

October, 1993. Kevin Jones was hunting near Galice, Oregon and saw an adult female Bigfoot with a child.

1993. Harold and Sonja Fisher see Bigfoot crossing Highway 299 near the Red Barn restaurant west of Douglas City.

October 1993. Shelly Shultz-Sundell was traveling on Highway 299 between Willow Creek and Big Bar about 2 am and saw a Bigfoot straddling a guard rail on the right hand side of the road.

1996. Brian McKinnon sees Bigfoot cross Highway 96 near the Tish Tang Campground near Hoopa.

1997. K. Caruso and W. Snible while traveling on Highway 299 near Big Flat watch a Bigfoot stand erect, reach over its head and grab an overhanging branch and step to the top of a 4 to 5 foot bank.

April 2002. George Burdeck finds 17 inch long by 8 inch wide foot print on the coast trail to Enderts Beach south of Crescent City.

June 2002. Bird counter C.V. Ogan is awakened by a horrendous sound 20 feet from his truck while camped above Onion Lake.

April 200. Debra Carpenter sees an 8 foot tall Bigfoot at 6am walking alongside Carpenter Lane in Hoopa.

May 2003. James and Helen Johnson find Bigfoot tracks in the snow on Brush Mountain road above Willow Creek.

December 2003 Raven Ulibarri sees Bigfoot behind her house on Mill Creek Road in Hoopa. She and a tribal deputy found hair. It was sent to a lab in Eureka and the results came back as unknown primate.

January 2004. Raven Ulibarri sees Bigfoot again on the trail behind her house.

2004. Kathy Moskowitz and Montra DuMond are with a BFRO expedition on Bald Hills Road east of Orick. At 10:30 pm they are near the tree line and have the feeling “something is watching us in the trees. We’re getting bad vibes.” They see a set of red eyes in front of a tree. Then it disappears and they hear it walking. The next day they found Bigfoot tracks along the tree line.

July 2006. Dennis Jensen and 6 other people find 16 inch by 7 inch biped tracks with a 34 inch stride and make casts. This was 6 miles east of Hyampom going down to Hayfork Creek.

August 1960 Curt Walker and a friend were climbing the summit of south Yolly Bolly when they saw a hairy person look at them over a 6 foot boulder.

April 24, 1999 Susan Boyd was going through Leggett at about 2:30am when they saw a Bigfoot running down the side of the road very close to town. He looked to be at least 7-8 feet tall.

August 2003, Dennis Jensen saw large prints in Redwoods on trail east of Orick near the rodeo grounds.

July 2006 Dennis Jensen and 6 other people find 16 inch by 7 inch biped tracks with a 34 inch stride and make casts. This was 6 miles east of Hyampom going down to Hayfork Creek.

Copyright - Willow Creek China Flat Museum 2008